Ph.D. Minor in Jewish Studies

The Jewish Studies Program has as its objective the study of Jewish civilization from antiquity to the present and its interaction with and impact on world civilization. The program draws on the many disciplines necessary to study the multifaceted Jewish experience, thus bringing a variety of approaches to the study of Jewish civilization. The contributing departments include Anthropology, Comparative Literature, English, Folklore and Ethnomusicology, Germanic Studies, History, Institute for Biblical and Literary Studies, Linguistics, Near Eastern Languages and Cultures, Philosophy, Political Science, and Religious Studies. Because of the interdisciplinary nature of the Jewish Studies Program, the structure of course work will vary according to each student's areas of interest and departmental requirements. Departmental concentrations, such as modern Jewish history (History), Biblical interpretation (Religious Studies) or Judaism and Christianity in Antiquity (Religious Studies), can be pursued in conjunction with the Jewish studies doctoral minor. Students may choose to concentrate on Jewish thought, Holocaust studies, Sephardic studies, or Yiddish studies.

Course Requirements
Fifteen (15) hours of graduate credit in courses on Jewish Studies. All students are required to take a core course, H520 Colloquium in Jewish History. No more than two courses may be taken in the student's home department. No more than 6 credit hours of individualized readings can be applied to the minor. No more than eight (8) hours of transfer credit from another institution may be applied to the minor. With permission from a student's home department, students may pursue an intensive minor in Jewish studies. The selection of courses must be approved by the Jewish Studies Associate Director or Academic Advisor.

Minor in Yiddish
Students may complete a Ph.D. minor in Yiddish through the Department of Germanic Studies. Requirements include 12 credits, consisting of GER-Y 502, GER-Y 503, GER-Y 504, 3 remaining credits to be chosen from GER-Y 505, GER-Y 506, GER-Y 815, and other courses focusing on non-language Yiddish topics.

Grades
Courses in which a student receives less than a B (3.0) will not count toward the minor.
