Master's Degrees

Master of Arts Degree

Students may follow one of two different curricula in pursuit of the M.A. degree: Master of Arts in Germanic Studies and Master of Arts in Modern German Culture. Admission requirements are the same for both programs, and the official degree title for both options is the M.A. in Germanic Studies.

Admission Requirements

Near-native command of German and undergraduate major in the field or other evidence of adequate background. Deficiencies may be removed by course work or special examination.

Master's Project

Both the Master of Arts in Germanic Studies and the Master of Arts in Modern German Culture require successful completion of a master's project, which is intended to give students experience in carrying out a limited scholarly investigation to their fullest potential. The project is normally submitted after three or four semesters of study but may be submitted as early as the first year. It entails appropriate revision and oral defense of a research paper of 20 to 30 pages originally written for a graduate course in Germanic Studies. The paper should demonstrate command of expository English or German, competence in the use of bibliographic and research tools, ability to conceive and develop a scholarly project, and effective critical and analytical thinking. It is recommended that students consult with appropriate faculty members regarding selection and revision of the project paper. A three-person faculty committee evaluates each project and conducts an oral defense that examines the candidate's ability to present concisely the main argument(s) of the project, place the project in larger scholarly contexts, discuss sources and scholarly literature used, and respond effectively to committee members' questions and comments. Students have the option of enrolling in German G850 Master's Project for one credit so that the project's completion is reflected on their permanent academic record and transcripts.

Master of Arts in Germanic Studies

Course Requirements

A total of 30 credit hours, including G503, G532, G548, G551, G558 or G640; and one seminar or colloquium at Indiana University. At least 9 additional credit hours in Germanic studies and one Germanic Literature course numbered 500 or above.

Language Requirement

Reading proficiency in an additional foreign language, preferably French.

Thesis

Not required.

Master of Arts in Modern German Culture

Course Requirements

A total of 30 credit hours, including G503, G563, G564; and V815 or equivalent. Nine (9) additional credit hours in Germanic Studies. Up to 9 further credit hours may be taken in other relevant programs and departments (history, comparative literature, etc.); specific courses must be approved by the director of graduate studies. Max Kade Fellows should seek approvals for specific courses from the director of the Institute of German Studies.

Language Requirement

Reading proficiency in an additional foreign language, preferably French.

Master of Arts for Teachers Degree

Admission Requirements

20 credit hours of course work (or the equivalent) beyond first-year German.

Course Requirements

A total of 36 credit hours; at least 20 of these must be in Germanic Studies, including G500, G540, two courses from G548, G551, and G558; two literature or culture courses in German, one of which may be at the 400 level. Students must demonstrate proficiency in depth in German; contact the language coordinator in the department for information.

Doctor of Philosophy Degree

General Information

Admission Requirement

M.A. in German or equivalent. Students with a master's degree in a related discipline who have completed extensive graduate-level work in German may also apply.

Credit Transfer

Entering doctoral students may present up to 30 credit hours of previous graduate-level work towards the 90-hour minimum required for the Ph.D. degree, subject to the regulations and approval of the University Graduate School.

Language

Reading proficiency in French. A substitution may be permitted; such a substitution should serve the candidate's major research interests.

Other Requirements

Specific departmental course and credit-hour requirements for each of the three Ph.D. majors are outlined below.

Examinations

A two-part written examination followed by an oral examination. The form, content, and scheduling of the separate examinations vary from major to major.

Teaching

All doctoral students are required to complete at least one year of service as an associate instructor in Germanic Studies.

Outside Minors for the Ph.D.

All three Ph.D. program options in Germanic studies require the completion of an outside minor. The outside minor is selected in consultation with the graduate director or faculty advisor. Requirements for the outside minor are set by the outside minor department or program (i.e., not Germanic Studies). Please note that Dutch or Yiddish may be selected by Ph.D. students in Germanic Studies as an outside minor.

Some Ph.D. candidates in Germanic Studies complete the minor entirely outside the department, for example in cognitive science, French, West European studies, or gender studies. Detailed information about minors offered by other departments and programs can be found elsewhere in this bulletin. Detailed below are sample minor programs.

1. Dutch: 12 credits, consisting of N402, N403, N404, and N450.
2. Comparative Literature: four courses in Comparative Literature, including C501; fluent reading knowledge of at least one foreign language.
3. Cultural Studies: 4 courses for a minimum of 13 credits in courses approved for the Cultural Studies program, including C601 and either C701 or C790. Students must officially declare the minor during the early phase of their Ph.D. studies by consulting with the director of the Cultural Studies program. Satisfactory performance on the qualifying examinations in the student's major department is also required.
4. English and Germanic philology: four courses, to include English G601 Introduction to Old English and at least one of the other older Germanic languages, i.e., German G632, G635, G638, G639, and G640. The remaining courses may be chosen from ENG G602 Introduction to Middle English, G655 History of the English Language, L710 Beowulf, L711 (Topic: Old English Literature), GER G532, G625 with appropriate topic, G636, G835 with appropriate topic, and any of the remaining older Germanic languages listed. Also offered is an Area Certificate in English and Germanic Philology, requiring four courses in addition to the four required for the minor. These may include any of the courses listed above, as well as courses in other departments that are relevant to the history and prehistory of the Germanic languages, and to early Germanic literature and culture.
5. Linguistics: 12 credits in linguistics or related courses, with a grade point average of 3.0 (B) or higher. The specific program for satisfying this requirement should be developed in consultation with the linguistics outside minor advisor.
6. Yiddish: 12 credits, consisting of Y502, Y503, Y504; and Y505 or Y506.

Ph.D. Minor in Germanic Studies

Doctoral students from other departments desiring to minor in Germanic studies will choose one of the following:

1. German: 12 credit hours, including at least two courses numbered 500 or higher.
2. German studies: 15 credit hours, including G563, G564, and V605.
3. Netherlandic: N402, N403, N404, and N450.
4. Yiddish: Y502, Y503, Y504; Y505, Y506, Y815 or other courses focusing on non-language Yiddish topics.

For further information concerning the graduate program in Germanic Studies, see the Guide to Graduate Study, issued annually by the department.
