

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

University Graduate School
2005-2006
Academic Bulletin

Social Studies

Bloomington

Departmental URL

www.indiana.edu/~socstud

Departmental E-mail

risinger@indiana.edu

Director

Dr. Lynn Boyle-Baise*

Interdepartmental Graduate Committee on Social Studies

Professors John Lovell* (Political Science), M. Jeanne Peterson* (History)

Academic Advisor

Dr. Lynne Boyle-Baise, 3210 Wright Education 4066, (812) 856-8191, boylebai@indiana.edu

Degree Offered

Master of Arts for Teachers

This program leads to Indiana teacher certification in secondary social studies, including history. Courses are selected from various departmental offerings and from those of the School of Education.

Special Program Requirements

Current requirements will change to meet new state guidelines on June 30, 2006. Please see the program advisor for more information. See also general University Graduate School requirements.

Master of Arts for Teachers Degree

Admission Requirements

Bachelor's degree, with at least 18 credit hours in the social sciences.

Course Requirements

A total of 36 credit hours, including 24 credit hours in three of the following departments: anthropology, economics, geography, history, political science, psychology, and sociology. At least 12 credit hours must be in one department, the other 12 credit hours divided as equally as possible between two other departments. Remaining credit hours are in the above departments or in the School of Education. S501-S502 may be substituted for any 6 of the 36 credit hours except the 12 credit hours in the major.

University Graduate School
Kirkwood Hall 111
Indiana University
Bloomington, IN 47405
(812) 855-8853
Contact: grdschl@indiana.edu

Courses

S501-S502 Seminar for Social Studies Teachers I-II (3-3 cr.) Intensive study of books in the literature of social studies which constitute landmarks of the past or present and important points of view with respect to contemporary problems.